MADELEINE’S PLACE EVENT CENTER CATERS TO GROUPS FROM 10-100

February 27, 2008 – Corrales, NM A new event center, Madeleine’s Place, is open for business to host social and fundraising events for groups from 10 to 100 in the Bosque area of Corrales. Madeleine’s Place offers multiple combinations of rooms, patio and garden areas that can be used to accommodate events from weddings to birthday parties to barbeques and musicales. Kitchen facilities are available.

A ribbon cutting to celebrate the opening will be held at 4:30pm on Wednesday, March 19, at the facility.

“We are getting a lot of inquiries at Madeleine’s Place;” says managing member Barbara Kline. “People are searching for affordable, accessible space for parties, fundraisers, retreats, and other events. It’s very clear to us that a venue of this size is needed.”

The new facility has been chosen to host the 10th Annual Corrales Art/Studio Tour’s Preview Gallery. A display of works from participating artists will be open to the public from 10:00am to 5:00pm daily from April 26th through May 11th.

Madeleine’s Place has also been chosen for a Corrales MainStreet auction and fundraiser April 13-14.

Madeleine’s Place offers concierge and event planning services and is available for rent from 7AM to 11PM, seven days per week. Named for its resident ghost, Madeleine’s Place is located at 3824 Corrales Road, former home of The Day Spa at Serenity Gardens. More information is available at www.MadeleinesPlaceNM.com or by calling (505)-962-2466. Madeleine’s Place is Corrales Executive Offices, LLC dba Madeleine’s Place.
